Readings for the Following Week
 Third Sunday of Easter
 April 18, 2010

NAMESAKES OF CHRIST

On Palm Sunday we heard in Paul's letter to the Philippians that all things in heaven, on earth, and under the earth must bend their knee at the name of Jesus. That name comes back in today's first reading. The Sanhedrin, whom we heard about just a few short weeks ago in the reading of the Passion, are again confronted by Jesus in his name being proclaimed by the apostles. Peter and the others refuse to bend their knee to the authority of the Sanhedrin and stop teaching in the name of Christ. In fact, they rejoice that they have been persecuted for doing so.

Do we turn to those first brave followers when we are called upon to give witness to the name of Christ in our name "Christian" day by day? When we must stand against, challenge, or confront forces that counter the gospel of justice, peace, joy, and beauty, do we give witness with no less than the Holy Spirit, or do we remain silent? Do we genuinely give honor to the name of Jesus by being his namesakes in the world today?

TODAY'S READINGS

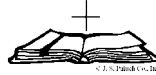

First Reading — Brought before the Sanhedrin, the apostles give witness to Jesus Christ. (Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41).

Psalm — I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (Psalm 30).

Second Reading — In his vision John sees all in heaven and on earth give honor and glory to the one on the throne and to the Lamb (Revelation 5:11-14).

Gospel — Jesus appears to the disciples by the sea of Tiberias (John 21:1-19 [1-14]).

Yes, that's right! We will be serving muffins instead of donuts. Please join us after the 7:30am and 10:30am Masses for Coffee, Juice and Muffins. Mingle with your fellow parishioners. Our morning hostesses are from the Special Events Committee...thank you ladies!

12th Annual Catholic Lobby Day

For the 12th consecutive year, concerned Catholics from all over California will gather on Tuesday, April 27th at 9:00am at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament in downtown Sacramento for Catholic Lobby Day sponsored by the California Catholic Conference. We will celebrate Mass together, learn about issues that are important to us as Catholic citizens, rally at the Capitol, and dialogue with our legislators. Online registration is available at www.diocese-sacramento.org or by calling the diocesan Office of Social Service Ministry at 916-733-0253. The registration fee of $5.00 includes the cost of lunch.

Your voice counts!

"Building Our Community"- Parish Center

All pledges are needed and appreciated! When making payments towards the "Building Our Community" Pledge, please write a separate check to St. Joseph. These funds are separate from our Operating Account.

Thank you.

Funds raised to date: $890,355.00

There are many things to be truly thankful for during the recent celebration of Lent, Easter Triduum, and the Easter Sunday - "The Lord is Risen, Alleluia, Alleluia! He is Risen Indeed, Alleluia, Alleluia!"

Here are some thank you's that I would like to share with everyone:

- To Father Arthur, Deacon Richard, Deacon Mike, and Deacon Jose for your willingness to step in to lead the community in prayer at various times. A special thank you is necessary for the Pariah Staff - Susan, Katie, Sabine, and Barbara
- To Ted and Maria Fregosi, the Art and Environment committee for the arrangements in the Church from the beginning of Lent until the day of Pentecost. It truly made our place of worship coincide with what we celebrate.
- To Kevin and Jim Letcher, thanks for being ready to help out with the heavy lifting and climbing ladders.
- To the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EM's), Lectors, Ushers, and the Altar Servers, particularly to David Hornbek, Kyler Prust, Andrew Wood, and Teresa Wood. Your assistance to the ordained ministry enhances the participation of the whole community. We hope that you all serve as inspiration to others.
- To those involve in the music ministry to Diana Blais, Gena Wiskus, Doreen Wood, Chris and Laura Bissonnette (Foresthill), Spanish Choir Musicians, and to all our choir members. Your leadership in music for our worship brought our celebration to a whole new level. I do hope that your service also encourages others to sing for the Lord.
- To my brothers who allowed me to wash your feet during the Mass of the Lord's Supper Service, know that your presence that evening made me realize how honored and privileged I am to serve the Catholic Community of Auburn.
- To those who have joined our Church family through Full Initiation, Completing Initiation, and Coming to Full Communion - know that you are the reason we are called to zealously proclaim our faith is you. Thank you for responding to God's call.
- To all the parishioners --- you are awesome! Each week with you is a true encounter of the Risen Lord.

I look forward to celebrate these next 50 days of Easter with you! God bless! Happy Easter!
Fr. Brian Atienza

Returning to Your Catholic Roots? Welcome Home

How Do I Come Home? Recognize that your Father in Heaven wants you to come home.

Regardless of what's happened in your life or how long you've been away, you can always come home to the Catholic Church. And the our Lord wants you to come home. Think for a minute about Christ's parable of the Prodigal son. The young man had walked away from his father, certain that he was doing the right thing by leaving. But eventually, he had a change of heart and tentatively made his way home, full of doubts about whether his father would accept him back. The story has a happy ending. Not only did the father welcome his son home again, but he threw a party in celebration of his son's return! You can be sure that the angels and the saints in heaven—and your own Heavenly Father—will rejoice that day you come home to the Catholic Church. If you have any questions or would like to speak to Fr. Brian or Fr. Arthur please call the parish office at 530-885-2956. Our deacons, Richard, Mike and Jose are also available.

Adult Faith Formation Classes

If you are interested in attending these classes or if you have questions, please call the parish Office at 530-885-2956.

Please remember in your prayers all of our parish family and friends who suffer physically, emotionally or spiritually, especially:

Nettie Broussard, Norman Sharpe, Flora Smith, Ida Granata, David de Necochea, Max Hiestand, Colleen Andersen, Sophie Ellis, Maxine Ricketts, Karen Budde, Hohn Horvath, Pat Rubalcava, Eileen French, Maria Venacio, Carole Gilsdorf, Connie Staggs, MaryAnn Bolling, Abraham Bravo, Irene Chavez, Evelyn Kalkowski, Bob Ford, Sean Ford, Anne Turinsky, John Parsons, Barbara Flores, Julia Theis, Dominic Ramos, Katherine Edlund, Fred Petersen, Abraham Lemon, Evie Sanislo, Margaret Topic, Pauline Cote, Payton Johns, Robert Hardy, Birute Mikelionis, Anna Manzinali, Addison Reed, Mae Jacobs and for all our parishioners who are homebound. For the repose soul of Leona Huber-mother of Colleen Andersen

Welcome to Saint Joseph Catholic Church! For those who are new to our parish community, new to the Catholic Church, or a "Catholic Coming Home", we welcome you to our parish family. Should you need help in our celebration, the Order of the Mass, or the basic responses and prayers, is on Page 4 of the Unidos en Cristo/United in Christ Book in your pews. Do not hesitate to ask those around you for help. The readings for the weekend can be located by looking at the bottom left of the page that indicates the date. The missals are bilingual – English on the Left and Spanish on the Right. We hope you have a true encounter with Christ through our celebration of the Eucharist.

Abril es el Mes de la Prevencion de Abuso Infantil

Padres, guardianes y adultos que cuidan niños constantemente enfrentan desafíos de cómo mantener a los niños seguros en este mundo acelerado. El Centro Nacional de Niños Desaparecidos y Explotados ofrece recursos que son fáciles de usar para ayudar a hablar de estos desafíos. Su sitio de Internet ofrece una variedad de información práctica para padres y guardianes para ayudar a resguardar a sus hijos del peligro. También ofrecen un acertijo interactivo sobre la seguridad infantil para menores y adultos. Para tomar el acertijo visite el sitio de Internet del CNNDE (www.missingkids.com) y haga clic en "Seguridad de Menores." Para mas información sobre los programas de ambiente seguro en la Diócesis de Sacramento visite www.diocese-sacramento.org.

LLAMADOS A SER TESTIGOS

Tomás probablemente sería el tipo de hombre que uno quisiera tener de su lado en un tribunal de justicia real. Aunque estuvo dispuesto a seguir a Jesús hasta la muerte (Juan 11:16), no se lanzaría a ir al mundo ahora e intentar dar testimonio de Cristo resucitado cuando sólo cuenta con "relatos de tercera mano" de otros apóstoles. No, él quiere evidencia inmediata, experiencia directa de Cristo resucitado y presente. Al final, Cristo resucitado le provee a Tomás la experiencia y la prueba que él necesita.

Muchos, cuando luchamos con nuestra fe y o con lo que creemos, nos podemos identificar con Tomás. Pero aunque nuestra fe fuera bastante sólida, encontramos a personas que son un poco como Tomás, que no creerán si no pasan por una experiencia creíble de Cristo resucitado. Entonces, somos llamados a dar testimonio. Como Cristo, no podemos avergonzarnos de mostrar las heridas del Cuerpo de Cristo, la Iglesia. Hasta tenemos que permitir a otros que toquen y examinen las heridas. Pero también debemos saludarlas con la "paz" y saber que, en la gloriosa vida eterna de Cristo resucitado de entre los muertos, nuestras heridas no serán nuestro destino final. Nuestra alegría final es una vida transformada por toda la eternidad.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Los apóstoles hacen muchas señales y maravillas entre la gente. (Hch 5:12-16).

Salmo — La misericordia del Señor es eterna. Aleluya (Salmo 118 [117]).

Segunda lectura — Juan, contagiado por el Espíritu, tiene una visión del Señor glorificado (Apocalipsis 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19).

Evangelio — Jesús resucitado visita a los discípulos con su paz y con el Espíritu. Tomás, ausente, duda de la aparición de Jesús (Juan 20:19-31).

SAN MARTÍN I (año 656) 13 de abril

Martín nació en Todi, Italia. Fue diácono de la Iglesia romana y posteriormente elegido Papa en el año 649. Fue notorio su ministerio porque no esperó la aprobación del emperador Constante II, sino que más bien, convocó a los obispos de Occidente en un Concilio para combatir la herejía monotelita que sostenía que Jesús no había tenido voluntad humana, sólo divina. Puesto que el Emperador era monotelita, ordenó que lo mataran. Quien iba a hacerlo se acercó para comulgar de manos del Papa y en el momento en que sacó el cuchillo quedó ciego. Martín fue arrestado en el año 653 por orden del Emperador acusado de usurpar el papado y tramar contra Constantinopla (Turquía). Fue llevado prisionero en un viaje que duró 15 meses en el cual se le torturó y se le expuso a la vergüenza pública. Dos años después fue desterrado y ahí sufrió el abandono, el frío y el hambre, hasta que le llegó la muerte. Ante su sufrimiento dijo: "Hagan de mí lo que quieran. Cualquier clase de muerte será un bien para mí".

Parish Pictorial Directory

We, as a parish, are reaching our 100th Anniversary! We are planning a new pictorial directory of all parishioners, ministries and organizations. I am asking the ministries and organizations to start taking pictures and/or collect pictures of your groups for our new directory. We will not be taking individual pictures until October however, I would like the groups to start working on these photos now. Take photos of activities, meetings, current board members, etc. Anything that would visually describe your group. Perhaps, designate an individual in your group to oversee the photography and collection of these pictures. If you have any questions, please call me, Susan, at the parish office 530-885-2956. This new directory will include 100 years of history. I plan to make this one extra, extra special.

Prayer for Priest

Dear Lord, We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry.

We pray that Mary will guide your priest to follow her own words,

“Do whatever He tells you” (Jn 2:5).

May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary’s most chaste spouse

May the Blessed Mother’s own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross.

May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen. Saint John Vianney, pray for us.
