 Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 July 25, 2010

LISTENING TO GOD

Familiarity, in the case of the Lord's Prayer, probably hasn't bred contempt in most of us, but it certainly can breed a kind of inertia. The words we speak in prayer run the same risks as all our other human words: they can be spoken hastily, thoughtlessly, carelessly. In a manner parallel to the words we say in the Lord's Prayer—"forgive us as we forgive others"—today might be the day to invite God to "listen to us as well as we listen to you." Today might be the day to listen to the Lord's Prayer with newly attentive ears.

Let us learn from the example of Luke's Jesus, who would not instruct others how to pray until he himself had been a man of prayer. Moreover, listen carefully to the follow-up Jesus gives for the prayer itself. In our quick-fix society we must heed the call to persistence; in a world that puts glib explanations on difficult situations we must continue to seek and knock; in our all-too-humanness, we must be open to the patience, grace, and wisdom of the will of God. Do we want the Lord to listen to our voice? Maybe we can start by listening to God's.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Abraham bargains with God to spare the city (Genesis 18:20-32).

Psalms — Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me (Psalm 138).

Second Reading — Buried with Christ in baptism, we were also raised with him; all our transgressions are forgiven (Colossians 2:12-14).

Gospel — Jesus speaks of God's sure response to those who pray (Luke 11:1-13).

TEACHERS, TEACHERS, TEACHERS, NEEDED IN FORESTHILL! I would like to thank Anne Jones, Jackie Kamp and Diana Blais for their many, many years of service of teaching catechism to the kids on the Foresthill Divide. Their commitment and love of God and His church is an example to us all. They have all decided to take a much deserved break so I am asking if someone else would like the blessing of passing on the faith to our younger generation of Catholics. If anyone feels God calling them to this ministry please call Katie Prust at 530-320-8810 ASAP. The books we will be using this year have a teacher edition and so all you need is a love for the faith and teachings of our Beautiful Catholic Church. Thanks again to the faithful lady's who have served for so many years.

Catechist Ministry Day! Saturday, September 18, 2010 Please sign up in the office if you are in a teaching role in our parish. This is a wonderful day filled with enriching workshops, key note speakers, really good lunch and Mass with Bishop Soto. The theme this year is Matrimony Sacrament of Enduring Love. This is one day you don't want to miss.

YOUTH NEWS: ON FIRE NORCAL JAM Featuring Matt Maher! October 16, 2010 at Six Flags Discovery Kingdom in Vallejo. The evening will end with special bands "Tenth Avenue North" and " The Light Meets the Dark" tour with special guests Addison Road and Matt Maher. Get your registration now and sign up early. We will be leaving St. Joseph at 7:00am and getting back around 10:00pm.

Christendom College Information Night Friday, July 23 at 7:00 p.m.
St. Joseph's Large Conference Room ~ Refreshments will be served ~

Everyone is invited to an informational evening about this solidly Catholic college, one of just a handful in the United States where students grow in knowledge, love, and practice of their Catholic faith. Michael Schmitt, a representative from Christendom College in Virginia, will be there, as well as our parishioner Steven Wood, who just finished his freshman year. While this evening is perfectly suited to junior high and high school students and their parents who might wish to check out this program, we are also welcoming anyone else who is interested. This is a great opportunity to learn out about the treasure that this college is so that you can promote it among family and friends when the occasion arises. Please RSVP to Doreen or Dean Wood at 823-5066 to help us plan food & seating.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL MEETING- WEDNESDAY, JULY 21ST at 7:00PM: The monthly meeting of St. Vincent de Paul Society will be held in the new downstairs conference room on Wednesday evening, July 21st at 7:00pm. All parishioners are welcome to join us in helping our poor and marginalized in the Auburn community. We are up and running now, and will be working on operational and office procedures, and need volunteers. Look forward to seeing you all there. If you have any questions, please call Deacon Mike Young at 530-887-8492.

Catholic's vs. Cancer....Relay for Life ~ Fairgrounds

One day. One night. One community. By participating in the American Cancer Society Relay for Life August 21st—22nd you honor cancer survivors, pay tribute to the lives lost to the disease and raise money to help fight it— all right in your community. The Knights of Columbus Council #6149 and a Catholic team will take turns (1 hour segments) walking around the field for 24 hours. While people are walking, there will be entertainment, speakers, time to relax and reflect, support and companionship. If you would like to walk, sponsor or donate, please call Faber Eaves 530-305-3242.

NO ESTÉS ANSIOSO

Nos preguntamos si el pasaje del Evangelio según san Lucas sería diferente si María, y no Marta, hubiera sido la que se quejó a Jesús; si María hubiera dicho: “¡Señor, mírala! Aquí estás tú compartiendo tu sabiduría y lo único que le preocupa a ella es la cena”. Puede que Jesús hubiera notado, como lo hace san Lucas, que Marta estaba recargada con mucho trabajo de servicio. Más tarde en sus escritos, este mismo evangelista describirá en los Hechos cómo en las primeras comunidades se designó a personas cuyo ministerio era servir las mesas.

Como persona plenamente humana, Jesús sabía que había necesidades humanas que atender. No lo niega, ni regaña a Marta por su trabajo de servir. La corrige por estar inquieta y preocupada. ¿Cómo puede Marta, o cualquiera de nosotros, estar inquietos o preocupados sobre el servicio que se necesita hacer cuando lo hacemos dentro del contexto de la voluntad y sabiduría del Señor? La Iglesia ha hecho más que cualquier otra institución llevando la pesada carga de servir a los enfermos, a los que necesitan educación, a los que sufren; ha sido “Marta” para incontables pequeñitos que Cristo dijo son su misma presencia. Sin embargo, la Iglesia ha llevado la carga del servicio desde la postura de María: a los pies del Señor, escuchando y siendo guiados por su palabra.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Abraham y Sara muestran hospitalidad a los mensajeros del Señor (Génesis 18:1-10a).

Salmo — ¿Quién será grato a tus ojos, Señor? (Salmo 15 [14])

Segunda lectura — Pablo habla de la responsabilidad que se le ha encomendado de completar la Palabra de Dios (Colosenses 1:24-28).

Evangelio — Marta, te preocupas de muchas cosas. María ha escogido la mejor parte (Lucas 10:38-42).

SANTA BRÍGIDA DE SUECIA (1303-1373) 23 de julio

Brígida fue una persona bendecida por Dios, no sólo porque desde muy pequeña abrigó en su ser el deseo de ser santa, sino porque en su proceso de santidad Dios le concedió tener visiones de la Pasión de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. En estas experiencias místicas recibió mensajes de Nuestro Señor, que después transmitió a los líderes de la Iglesia. También fue esposa y madre, pues aunque se casó muy joven, supo inculcar en sus hijos el amor a la santidad, tanto así que una hija suya, Catalina de Suecia, es venerada como santa. Junto con su esposo Ulf, fueron parte de la corte durante dos años, de hecho, ella podía llegar a ser la reina, pero no se interesó por los puestos o por la vida cómoda, antes bien, vistió con sencillez y motivó a los reyes de Suecia a que fueran santos. Vivió la caridad de una manera profunda con los pobres y enfermos, pues una vez que enviudó, fundó la Orden Religiosa del Santísimo Redentor, dedicándose de entero a la caridad con los necesitados.

For A Laugh

One Sunday morning, an old cowboy entered church just before services were to begin. Although the old man and his clothes were spotlessly clean, he wore jeans a denim shirt and boots that were worn and ragged. In his hand he carried a worn out old hat and an equally worn, dog eared bible. The church he entered was in a very upscale part of the city. It was the largest and most beautiful church the old cowboy had ever seen. The people of the congregation were all dressed with expensive clothes and fine jewelry. As the cowboy took a seat, the others moved away from him. No one greeted, spoke to, or welcomed him. They were all appalled by his appearance and did not attempt to hide it. As the old cowboy was leaving the church, the preacher approached him and asked the cowboy to do him a favor. “Before you come back in here again, have a talk with God and ask him what he thinks would be appropriate attire for worship in the church.” The old cowboy assured the preacher he would. The next Sunday, he showed back up for the services wearing the same ragged jeans, shirt, boots, and hat. Once again he was completely shunned and ignored. The preacher approached the cowboy and said, “I thought I asked you to speak to God before you came back to our church?” “I did,” replied the old cowboy. “And what was his reply?” asked the preacher. “Well, Sir, God told me that he didn't have a clue what I should wear. He said he'd never been in this church.”

Prayer for Priest

Dear Lord, We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priest to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5). May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen. Saint John Vianney, pray for us.
