Readings for the Following Week
 Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JESUS' WAY

Today's readings present a contrast between "Jesus' way" and the "old way." An example of the old way is the law given to Moses and Aaron about leprosy: the leper was unclean and cast out of the community. Jesus' way is the opposite: the leper is reached out to, touched, and finally cured.

Nor ought we think of the "old way" as restricted to the days of Moses and Aaron, or even to the "old" testament. The difference between the old way and Jesus' way arises in our own lives. We still choose, every day, to live in our old way or in Jesus' way.

Jesus dared to touch a leper, disregarding the old way. The leper then was changed forever. He felt a calling. He couldn't keep himself from proclaiming that he had been touched by Jesus (even though Jesus told him not to!). Once Jesus touches us, we are called to proclaim his way.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The leper will dwell apart, making an abode outside the camp (Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46).
 Psalm — I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation (Psalm 32).
 Second Reading — Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31 — 11:1).
 Gospel — The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean (Mark 1:40-45).

EL CAMINO DE JESÚS

Las lecturas de hoy presentan un contraste entre el "camino de Jesús" y el "camino viejo". Un ejemplo del camino viejo es la ley que recibieron Moisés y Aarón acerca de la lepra: el leproso era impuro y se echaba fuera de la comunidad. El camino de Jesús es lo contrario: el leproso se acerca, es tocado y finalmente curado.

Tampoco debemos pensar en el "camino viejo" como algo restringido a los días de Moisés y Aarón o incluso al "antiguo" testamento. La diferencia entre el camino antiguo y el camino de Jesús surge en nuestra propia vida. Todavía elegimos, todos los días, a vivir siguiendo el camino viejo o el camino de Jesús.

Jesús se atrevió a tocar a un leproso, sin tener en cuenta el camino viejo. Así el leproso fue cambiado para siempre. Se sintió llamado. No podía dejar de proclamar que había sido tocado por Jesús (¡a pesar de que Jesús le dijo que no lo hiciera!). Una vez que Jesús nos toca, estamos llamados a proclamar su "camino".

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El leproso habitará solo, fuera del campamento (Levítico 13:1-2, 44-46).
Salmo — Perdona, Señor, nuestros pecados (Salmo 32 [31]).
Segunda lectura — Haz todo por la gloria de Dios; sean imitadores de Cristo (1 Corintios 10:31 — 11:1).
Evangelio — Jesús, después de haber curado a un hombre leproso, le pide que no se lo cuente a nadie (Marcos 1:40-45).

“Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed.”
(Mark 1:35)

In the gospel this week, we see in Jesus the example he sets for us on the importance of prayer. Even in the midst of the task at hand, the needs set before Him, Jesus found time for prayer. We can never underestimate the benefits of prayer that is consistent and constant. God gives us what we need and prayer is our way to ask.

These past couple of months, prayer has been a tremendous source of strength and inspiration for me. It is common knowledge already that we as a parish community are going through a period of transition. I urge everyone to join me in prayer to ask for the grace of discernment to see this through and bring us closer to fulfilling our vision and mission. With regard to our parish hall project, we have started to do some prep work on the parcel where we are to build. We have set up the fences on the perimeter. We are moving forward. We will be sending out further updates in the upcoming weeks. Thank you again for your continued support and prayers. We also welcome on board Kristine Hornbek as our new Music Minister and Brennan Cull as our Interim Youth Minister. With Kristine coming on board, we hope that you consider volunteering as musicians and cantors.

Lastly, I want to make an appeal to everyone. Recently, I completed the Good Leaders, Good Shepherds Workshop. Of the many things I learned from the workshop regarding being a good leader and a good shepherd is the three powerful words a leader should know --- “I NEED HELP.” Financially, we need to consider what more we can do and what more we can give. In the last couple of years, I have been observing and praying over the trends in our collections and how it corresponds to the needs of the parish. It is evident that many times, we do not meet our weekly goals. This makes it challenging for us to keep and maintain the faith and community building programs we have started in the last couple of years. I have been very appreciative of the affirmations that many of you have been giving me as to how we are moving forward as a parish. This is my appeal for help in order to keep it up. I hope you will pray over this request and respond accordingly. God bless!!!

HELP MISSION WORK

My name is Marlee Gruber. I have been attending St. Joseph’s since I was young and I consider it my home parish. I am currently in my third year at Virginia Tech and I’m involved with the Newman Community, Catholic Campus Ministry. Each year, the Newman Community takes groups of students on Alternative Break trips for mission work in and outside the United States. I have been chosen to help lead the trip to Jacsonville, Haiti this year. In the past I have served by going to Chicago and Mexico. I have found that this experience has helped me grow in my faith and also to share the sense of community and service. These trips have been a huge part of my college experience and I hope to continue gaining insight and also keep growing stronger in my faith.

First and foremost, I ask for your prayerful support; that we may have safe travel, and the people we encounter may learn from us, and that we may learn from them. I also write to ask you for financial support. With eight trips, we must raise over $50,000. We must rely on the support of others to allow us to serve these communities. Our goal is to find people to partner with us in this ministry by supporting us financially. All donations are tax deductible and can be made out to: The “Newman Community” and sent to 203 Otey Street, Blacksburg VA 24060. Also if you would like to check out our website it is <http://vtcatholic.com/> .
